

“Thank You God”

Thank you God for all the good things in my life (Thank you God)
Thank you God for all the good things in my self (Thank you God)
For rain and sun, for all the good to come
Thank you, Thank you God

Thank you God for my whole and perfect self (Thank you God)
Thank you God for my great and growing wealth (Thank you God)
For plants and trees, for the gentle breeze
Thank you, Thank you God

Thank you God for all the good things in my life (Thank you God)
Thank you God for all the good things in my self (Thank you God)
For rain and sun, for all the good to come
Thank you, Thank you God

Thank you God for my whole and perfect self (Thank you God)
Thank you God for my great and growing wealth (Thank you God)
For plants and trees, for the gentle breeze
Thank you, Thank you God

For rain and sun, for all the good to come
Thank you, Thank you God

“The Ocean”

Immersed in the ocean of God, I receive
Embraced by the ocean, I'm perfect and free
At one with the ocean of love, I am whole
And the ocean is one with me

Immersed in the ocean of God, I receive
Embraced by the ocean, I'm perfect and free
At one with the ocean of love, I am whole
And the ocean is one with me

And the ocean is one with me
